The Millionaire's Math

Mike Mazzei, the $12 million campaign, the insurance file, and the voucher money

THE PLAYER

Mike Mazzei — Tulsa wealth manager, 12 years in the state Senate chairing Finance, 20 months as budget secretary, now the Republican nominee for governor.

THE DEAL

Roughly $12 million loaned to his own campaign, $9 million-plus in undisclosed outside spending from a school-choice affiliate, and a dozen State Farm agents' checks after the state sued the company.

THE PRICE YOU PAID

Homeowners premiums around double the national average, $255 million in private-school tax credits with 40% going to households above $150,000, and public schools funded near last in the nation.
